through the seasons . . .

Generation after generation have passed through the doors of Education, while America was winning her independence, wars, and developing the Atomic Age. Meanwhile, youth has been hanging on the hinge of time watching, and waiting, waiting to put their finger into the pie. But they have not been idle; they have been molding the crust, working hard at making it firm and solid in order to hold the filling that waits in the future. The ingredients are made up of seasons of activities, sports, learning, and growing up. To many these are only memories.

Turn these pages and relive this season's ingredients. Again . . . VIEW . . .

Fall . . . crunching leaves, bobby sox, faded sun-tans, the opening of school, excitement. New faces, new teachers, freshies, stiff and awkward, Juniors, a year wiser, Seniors, at last on top of the world. Hear the whistle signaling the kickoff of the first football game. See the scores of the Cross Country team, the swimming team. A new term, a new adventure.

Winter . . . crackling ice, tobogganing, frostbite, activities in full swing. Cheers in the basketball stand, applauding the Senior Play. Things are humming.

Spring . . . Boy meets girl, spring fever, discarded coats, baseball team practice, golf, tennis, 18th week exams, swing out, Vacation.

YOUTH MARCHES ON . . .

The smell of burning leaves, voices, hoarse from cheering at a football game, seeing old friends again after the long summer vacation, all these are memories of fall. Such memories we don't want to forget and the fall Centralite staff has endeavored to keep them alive by putting into this book activities, pictures, and affairs reminiscent of our fall term at Central.

Faith Greenbaum, Fall Editor-in-Chief of the Centralite, deserves credit for her fine job and hard work, as do the competent editors who worked under her. The activities section was edited by Karen Lipkin, Sports by Eleanore Rudner, and Norma Porter. Graduation by Elaine Saltzman and Carolyn Scott.

Victory!

The battle has been won. Staged in room 122, the war between paper, ink, copy, and the wits of the fall staff and editors raged. The staff won out each time and came through with a paper that placed in the top 10% in the country and won the honored Medalist Award.

Leading the troop was Editor-in-chief Elaine Madorsky, guiding with a firm hand. Next came Larry Sturman managing the news. Feature artillery was in the control of Gail Smolinsky. Carolyn Scott and Leonard Poger directed News Feature and Bob Brent commanded Sports.

Hail! Leaders of the best.

student body heard through student council

During the second year under its new charter, the Student Council has proved its competence as Central's student government. With the aid and guidance of Mr. Ben Chinitz, sponsor, and the Fall officers, who were Harriet Chodoroff, President; Bob Schechter, Vice President; Marion Gliberman, Secretary; and Ronnie Horwitz, Treasurer, the council began its work by publishing the Council Bulletins which listed all school activities, and were distributed to the groups each week.

A committee was formed to investigate and offer suggestions on improving the lunchroom, and suggestion boxes were placed in the study halls for all students.

During the spring term, Elaine Braverman presided and was assisted by Bill Stephens. Gloria Manela recorded the minutes, and Phyllis Zager took care of the finances.

The new Central handbook, which was begun in the fall, was completed by the spring council and will be ready for distribution next term. At the beginning of both terms, the council sponsored the orientation assemblies to welcome new students to Central.

Student Day, when the students and teachers change places, was the council's last big event, thus completing a successful program for the year.

The Council deserves much credit for the work they undertook and should be praised for their success.

Selling school and senior pins, school shirts, and ushering at graduation and Athletic events, were some of the tasks undertaken by the Girl's Athletic Association this year. Also included in the year's agenda were the Letterwomen's Banquet and Play Day, a day devoted to better acquaint the girls of Central with the girl's athletic program.

The G.A.A. has a permanent membership of twenty-four. Girls who wish to join the club send in letters stating why they desire membership. The letters are judged, discussed, and voted upon by the organization, without knowing who its author is. The club feels this eliminates prejudice.

The club, under the sponsorship of Miss Ernestine Burton, has an executive board which selects the officers of the club. Officers during the fall term included Faith Greenbaum as President, Jean Brinze as Vice-President and Audrey Katz as Secretary. Officers for the spring semester were, Judy Alzofon as President, Esther Margolis as Vice-President, Barbara Bandler and Jane Rosenzweig as co-secretaries and Winifred Ledger, who was Treasurer for both terms.

Because of its able sponsorship, variety, and friendly attitude, the G. A. A. has become one of the most active and popular clubs in Central.

Walking down the halls of Central one can often see a student wearing a flashy blue and white sweater known as a "C" sweater. Behind this sweater is more than meets the eye. Ambitious athletes practicing, exercising, working, and striving to improve skills. In the fall it's football; in winter, basketball and swimming; and in spring, golf and baseball. Students of outstanding ability in sports and who have maintained a fair average are eligible for membership.

The "C" club under the leadership of Coach Harold B. Kammerer has carried out worthwhile activities throughout the year. "C" Club members are always available to act as ushers at all school events. Other events on the club's 1954 agenda included a semi-annual Athletic Awards Banquet. This banquet is for fathers and sons honoring those boys who have earned letters. "C" Club members have also sold school pennants and stickers.

During the fall term Bob Brent served as president, Irwin Biegle as vice-president, and Bill Stephens as secretary-treasurer. The spring term brought Joe Sterns as president with Harold Thomas to assist him. Once again Bill Stephens was elected secretary-treasurer.

This year, as every other year, the boys in the "C" Club have maintained an excellent reputation in sports.

This year's cross country team showed a marked improvement over last year's squad and improved steadily as the season went on. Coach "Doc" Sanford was especially pleased with the hard work and willingness to win of his harriers. Central's men placed fifth in the west side league meet. Leading the harriers were track stars, Bill Stephens and Hal Thomas two of the outstanding athletes at Central. Hal graduates this summer but Bill will be back next season to once again spark the Blazer cross country team. Letter winners were: Hal Thomas, Bill Stephens, Nehemiah Pitts, Herman Goldberg, Douglas Talbot, Benny Solomon and Art Leiberman.

Who keeps up our teams' spirits when things aren't going right? Who are the girls who lead the school in blue and white with screaming cheers? The Cheerleaders of course, and we salute them for the fine job they have done again this year at all our athletic events. This year the girls were led by Margaret White who did a superb job in helping to teach the student body the many cheers and songs of Central. Many undergraduate girls participated on the cheerleaders and will be back again next year to lead Centralites in cheering for their favorite teams.

The coming of fall means means the coming of football at Central. Sparked by the fine hard play of such names as Joe Brown, Irv Biegel and Ray Hood, the Trailblazers made every game this season an interesting one. A good example of this was the Mackenzie game. Central trailed Mackenzie until about two minutes were left in the game when little Joe Brown slanted off tackle for a touchdown. Quarterback Irv Biegel's kick was good and the Blazers brought home a victory.

Central's only non-league game was against a very strong Southeastern team which downed the Blue and White, 25 to 6. Central followers were privileged to watch their team play a night game at Wyoming Field against

Along with exciting football must go good sportsmanship and Central can be proud to say that we had both during the fall of 1953. We were not only proud of our athletes on the gridiron, but were equally proud of the students in the stands, who at all times conducted themselves in a manner commendable to Central.

Before our very eyes a group of high school seniors, under the magic hand of Mr. Clifford E. White, were transformed into polished actors, and as the houselights dimmed on December 3 and 4, 1953, Central's Auditorium became an imposing theater.

"Cheaper by the Dozen," the smash hit of stage and screen, was the play presented by the January Class of 1954, and following tradition was a tremendous success.

The play was based on the true life of Frank and Lillian Gilbreth and their twelve children. Father Gilbreth, an efficiency expert, took advantage of his large family to experiment with his time-saving methods. These experiments resulted in many comical situations.

Jerry Bernstein, who portrayed the father, gave an unusually superb performance as did Eleanor Goldman who played Mother Gilbreth.

The story was narrated by Frank Gilbreth, Jr. and Ernestine Gilbreth whose parts were taken by Lester Goldstein and Marilyn Mutchnick.

The portrayal of Ann, the eldest daughter, by Judy Fields is deserving of much praise and her so very typical protest of, "Nobody in this family understands me!" will not be forgotten, along with a magnificent supporting cast.

With the able assistance of Beverly Goldstein, Student Director, a better performance could not have been seen on any Broadway Stage.

Following an eight year tradition which has made them an outstanding Central Organization, the Unity Forum has again made this academic year's programs worthwhile and interesting.

Realizing that Brotherhood is the only solution to the crossword puzzle of world relations this club lays the groundwork among its members here in Central. The group is an outgrowth of the Detroit Roundtable of Christians and Jews. It draws its members from the student body at large. Pupils of every faith and race join this organization. Their aim is to develop understanding between the different groups through education.

Movies, speakers, and panel discussions often highlight the bi-monthly meetings. In achieving the goal much time is allotted for open discussion, as it has been found that only through conversation can prejudice be erased.

The organization works hand in hand with the Roundtable which often supplies speakers and suggestions.

As an added project this year, the Unity Forum sponsored the Central Bible Club. At these meetings, students who usually have no opportunity to display their talents or activities are given the time through the Unity Forum.

The sponsor of this organization is Charles Merryman. Under his leadership the club functions smoothly and was a benefit to the entire school.

The membership in this organization is the second largest in the school. Meetings vary in size from fifty to one hundred and fifty participants.

Membership is open to anyone who is interested in joining; the only requirement is that they attend Central High School.

Officers during the fall season were Carol Mitnick, President; Eleanore Rudner, Vice-President; Ilene Fishman, Secretary; and Carole Rubin, Treasurer. Officers for the Spring term were Carole Mitnick, President; Vice-President, Gladys Steinmetz; Secretary, Marlene Seidman, and Treasurer, Phil Stone.

The standing project of the club is to educate the student body and let them realize the pettiness of prejudice.

They hope to have an assembly next year and to make the club even more widespread than it is now. The Unity Forum is a club pledged to eradicating prejudices.

When Central's Sportsmanship Council was formed in 1950, it consisted of only nine members, now, in its fifth year, it has become the largest club with a membership of about one hundred and fifty.

With the aid of its new sponsor, Mr. Wilmont Sanford, and President Jerry Bernstein, Vice-President Evelyn Siporin, Secretary Barbara Bandler, and Treasurer Sheldon Kantor, the fall council sponsored a basketball-football Pep Rally which helped considerably to increase school spirit.

As a member of the Inter-Metropolitan Student Sportsmanship Council, Central's council had two representatives at all I.M.S.S.C. meetings. In the fall they were Carolyn Scott and Harriet Chodoroff. The council also attended the I.M.S.S.C. Kick-Off at Northeastern High School, which officially opened the Detroit High School football season. The student exchange with Mumford High proved very interesting to all who participated.

During the spring term Central had the honor of holding an I.M.S.S.C. meeting. The new representatives were Harriet Fields and Bill Stephens. There was also an exchange with Cody High School. The spring officers were: Evelyn Siporin, President; Maurice Cohen, Vice-President; Barbara Bandler, Secretary; and Ronald Hirsch, Treasurer.

The purpose of the Sportsmanship Council has been to promote good sportsmanship and fellowship among the students and teams of Detroit high schools. In order to further achieve this purpose, the council has done its best to uphold and teach this Sportsmanship Code:

"We consider all athletes as our guests. We will accept all decisions of the officials. We do not utter abusive or irritating remarks or attempt to rattle an opposing player. We applaud opponents who make good plays or show good sportsmanship. We strive to win fairly without boasting and lose without excuses. We ask that all players and fans help us live up to this code . . . and MAY THE BEST MAN WIN."

A French Dinner prepared by chefs of Chadsey High School, joint meetings with the Spanish and Latin Club are only a few of the events highlighting this year's agenda for the FRENCH CLUB. Musical and Drama programs put on by the club and a guest speaker from Wayne University added to the interest of the organization.

During the fall semester, Al Engleman was President; Jane Rosenzweig was Vice-President; Joyce Brown was Secretary; and Seymour Manello was Treasurer. This spring's officers had Al Engleman, re-elected as President; Edith Supac as Vice-President; Jane Rosenzweig as Secretary; and Winifred Ledger as Treasurer.

Because of the able sponsorship of Miss Phylliss Ward, the officers of the club, and the many enjoyable activities undertaken by its members, the French Club has marked up another successful year.

The purpose of the SPANISH CLUB is to increase its members' appreciations and knowledge of the language. It provides an opportunity for them to use the Spanish Language outside of the classroom.

The meetings are varied and include musical programs and games. This year the members of the Club were fortunate in having a native of a South American Country speak to them at one of their meetings. Highlighting the 1953-4 semester was a joint meeting with the Redford Language Clubs. At the end of the spring semester, the Spanish Club held a picnic to climax the school year.

The officers for the past year have been: President, Barbara Bandler; Vice-President, Artree Gray; Secretary, Eileen Kayne; Treasurer, Jere Wendell. The sponsor of the Spanish Club is Miss Eleanor Brakeman.

After completing another successful year, the LATIN CLUB, under the sponsorship of Mrs. Ethel Bush, holds the title of being one of Central's most active clubs.

This year's activities took the students to Ann Arbor where, combined with a picnic, they visited the Classical Museum.

They also visited Mumford High School, where they participated in a Latin, "What's My Line," panel. Other events were a Christmas Party, entertaining Mumford's Latin Club at an informal gathering here, consisting of a program, refreshments, and a tour of the school.

At the end of the term students completing eight semesters of Latin and had maintained an A Average were presented with a medal as a symbol of high Accomplishment.

Heading the Latin Club this year were the Co-Consuls: Judy Alzofon, and Jerry Chapnick, Quaestor: Ellen Averbuck; Scribo: Phillip Berns; Histor: Beverly Simon.

p. a. reporters keep 'lites posted

P. A. REPORTERS

Barry Levine, Golda Robner, Jerry Bernstein

"Good morning, this is your P. A. reporter," is a phrase well recognized by all Central students. Each Tuesday of the week, Centralites in both A. M. and P. M. groups are kept posted of the current happenings around the school. Announcements and other notes of importance are related by the P. A. reporters.

During the fall term Golda Robner and Jerome Bernstein announced the week's events. They kept Centralites informed of Student Council activities and club events.

Golda was also a reporter during the spring term and along with Judy Alzolon and Barry Levine presented the spring term news. Recently we have heard of the Music Festival and the Carnival Fun Fair.

This year's "crew" did a fine commendable job. Certainly reporters in coming years will have much to do to equal the outstanding work accomplished by all concerned.

library staff serves all

Looking for information for your history report or do you need help to an answer to a physic problem? Then do as many Centralites do—visit your school library. There are books on varied subjects and the Library Staff is there to assist any student who needs help in locating various material.

The Library staff is under the direction of Miss Orah Hahn. While serving on the staff the student librarian must be carrying an A or B average. The school must be able to devote one hour a day to work in the Library for which they receive academic credit.

Members of the staff do clerical jobs, prepare bulletin boards, and arrange books on the shelves. Aside from performing these various duties they are taught to use reference books, the card catalogue, and the dictionary.

The Central Students are very proud of their Library and their Library Staff who strive to make their Library one of the finest in the City.

Winning only two games and losing four, Central's girls' basketball team did not do too well this season, but the enthusiasm, teamwork and good sportsmanship that the girls showed led to a good time for all concerned. High scorers were Eunice Hart and captain Aundria Merriweather. Excelling at the guard positions were Margaret White and Ruth Thompson.

Victories were achieved over Highland Park and Chadsey, while losses were at the hands of Cooley, Western, Mackenzie and Redford. As usual a fine coaching job was turned in by Miss Emma Mayer.

lack of depth stops cagers

The cagers of '53-'54 had their ups and downs. An injury to Harvey Komorn left Joe Brown, Bill Stephens, Ray Hood and Bob Brown as the only returning varsity lettermen.

After winning three of their first five league games, the Blazer hoopsters found the going quite rough and failed to win another game all season. Lack of an experienced bench seemed to be the cause of the downfall. Bright spots in an otherwise mediocre season were Bob Brown, who was given honorable mention on the All-State team and Joe Brown, who sank the longest field goal in Central's history.

Exceptionally fine ball handling was exhibited by senior Bob Brown and tenth grader Doyle Cole. Coach Kammerer cited the Redford and Western games as the best played all season. In the Redford game, the Blazers trailed at halftime but came back to defeat an aggressive Redford squad. The Western game was one in which the rebounding of the Blazers was exceptional. The starting lineup consisted of Joe Brown and Mel Miller, guards; Ray Hood and Bill Stephens, forwards; and Bob Brown, center.

CENTRAL 30	SOUTHWESTERN	60
CENTRAL 40	U. of D.	47
CENTRAL 42	SOUTHEASTERN	47
	(preliminaries)

This year's reserve basketball team was one of the finest Central has had in many years. They were especially noteworthy for two reasons. First, they played excellent basketball throughout the year and provided interesting preliminary games to the varsity, and second, because of the talent and ability which they showed, Central is sure of having fine varsity basketball teams in the future. One of the players who is sure to make the varsity squad next season is Ted Brod. Ted played first string center on the reserve squad this season, and developed into a fine pivot man as well as a capable rebounder.

You cannot mention the reserve basketball team without making mention of their coach, Don Fitch. Mr. Fitch did an outstanding job in teaching the boys the fundamentals of good basketball and in preparing them for the varsity squad in the future.

boys' and girls' swimming

Central's boys' swimming team was captained this year by Art Wolf and Shell Slobin, who were the only returning lettermen from last season. The rest of the squad was rounded out by Fred Borden, who was the top diver, Al Alford, the top free styler, Douglas Dowles, Lauren Winkvist, Harvey Wolf and Jerry Greenbaum, letter winners; Dave Patterson, Larry Rosen, Lyle Hochman, Mike Weingarden, Burt Serlin, Ed Traurig, Al Coleman, Al Engelman, Gordon Landsman, Stanley Kaller and Norman Cohn.

Although working with a limited number of girls, Mrs. Clara Deirdorf, girls' swimming coach, was again pleased by the fine effort and hard work of her team. The Central aqua-girls opened the '54 season with a meet at Southwestern and followed it with meets against Eastern, Highland Park, Cody and Western. Leading them enthusiastically through the season were co-captains Gail Bennett and Nancy White. Barbara Grant and Gail Bennett were high scorers for the season.

LEFT: An example of fine spirit and interest in co-educational activities is displayed by Centralites dancing in the gym. Many social affairs highlighted this year's activities, and kept 'Lites constantly interested in school affairs. Right: Boy's gym class provides athletic activities for underclassmen.

The best years of our lives are spent here at Central and as we turn the pages of the 1954 edition of the Centralite, once again these years can become real to us. The clubs, the various classes, the sports events, and the good times we've had can all be relived through the pages of our yearbook.

In the spring the editor's fancies turn to thoughts of deadlines, printers' fees, and how to turn out a fabulous Centralite. This year's spring staff has worked long and hard to make this an outstanding book and as we turn the pages it is easy to see that their labor has not been in vain.

The Activities staff edited by Eleanore Rudner and Louise Glattstein will long remember the last minute writing of stories, the gathering of materials, and the fun they had pasting up pictures in their proper order.

The Graduation Editors, Evelyn Siporin and Jane Rosenzweig are the ones to receive thanks from the Seniors. Their job was to put all the grad's pictures and activities in the proper order and this was quite a project.

Editor Mel Lester perfected the work on the sports division and the Artwork seen throughout the book was supplied by Art Editors Charlotte Meckler and Sharon Rosenthal.

Presiding over and uniting the Centralite

Karen Lipkin
SPRING EDITOR-IN-CHIEF

Staff was editor-in-chief Karen Lipkin, who provided moral support and a helping hand to all.

The Centralite for 1954, was planned as a book for all Central Students. There are things of interest for tenth graders right on up to seniors. Just as this is your school, so is this your book. A book to be proud of. We, of the Centralite staff have tried to make this such a book and we sincerely hope it will meet with the approval of all Centralites.

Once upon a time, in room 122 a newspaper was born. The year 1922 marks the birth of THE CENTRAL STUDENT. As the years progressed, the paper moved with them, each one being better than the one before it. Season after season each staff struggled to make the paper live up to its reputation.

But this story is no fairy tale. It wasn't magic that made the STUDENT what is today. It was hard work, worry and effort. Each term brought new problems to be solved, new ideas to be created, and a new staff to train.

And so we embark upon the present and sit back to view the work of this term's spring staff. Picture, if you will, a room laden with shelves, papers, pencils, and typewriters. Listen closely and you can hear the hum of voices. They belong to the new spring staff anxious to get the printer's ink into their veins, eager to go to press, desiring to hold true to tradition and put out a great paper just as their predecessors have done.

And theirs was the success story of the season, for under the able guidance of Editor-in-Chief Sandy Schechter the STUDENT came through again. News was kept intact with the help of Co-editors Ilene Fishman and Barbara Sorscher, Feature was better than ever under the direction of Naomi Sherman and Ruthie Rubin, Co-editors of page two, News Feature was handled efficiently by Esther Margolis and Judy Alzofon, and last but not least all Sports news and chatter came to 'Lites with the help of Roger Boesky, Sports Editor. And standing by was Birger Bakke, the staff's inspiration through it all. The students relied on his wisdom and judgment to guide them.

music makers achieve success

Central's Music Department is a feature of Central High School which 'Lites ought to be particularly proud of. This year has been an especially active one for the department, even in comparison with previous seasons. Under the direction of Dr. Seitz, and Mr. Kertez, they have participated in many fine programs.

One of the highlights of the fall season was the music assembly presented by the whole department. Soloists, the choir, band, orchestra, and ensemble all combined to give Centralites a good idea of what membership in the music department would be like.

Many students were surely inspired by this program.

The spring semester brought the presentation of a gala May Music Festival at the Art Institute. Participating were all members of advanced music classes.

Radio is another medium through which Central's Girls' Glee Club and Choir were heard.

The verse-speaking choir took all solo lines in a cantata presented at the Detroit News Music Festival, and the Boys' Octette was heard on an evening session of the "Careers Unlimited" program. Soloists performed at the Memorial Day service presented in the auditorium.

Durfee Intermediate students had an opportunity to glimpse into their future when Central's Orchestra and Band "traveled", there to give a concert.

It is fitting that the music department should complete its season participating in Senior Activities. Each semester Seniors look forward to hearing the orchestra entertain at their Senior Play, as well as hearing the choir and band at graduation ceremonies.

It is evident that Central's Music Department has filled a complete and successful year with programs and activities of which 'Lites can be proud. Coming years and groups have much to live up to.

curtain rises on senior stars

Row 2 — Jerry Sherman, Stuart Pernick, Bobby Lichtman.

Missing — Sue Simons.

Take your cue, the play's the thing
And golly don't we know it
"Barretts of Wimpole Street," this spring
Was Central High's tremendous hit.

Tells about Elizabeth and Robert Browning
Rudolph Besirer wrote this story
Describing Liz's selfish father (Stuart Pernick) and
Painting her love, her fear, and glory.

Barbara Bandler and Sharon Freedman
Shared the leading part
With Bobby Lichtman and Jerry Sherman
As Browning, who won her heart.

Sharon Slobin and Sue Simons also Did a fine job, it's true
And Sharon Corey, as Henrietta
Acting was surpassed by few.

The plot was quite dramatic
The cast was just as grand
And Mr. White, the director
Deserves a great big hand.

The curtains rolled up this year
On the 26 and 27 of May
And 'Lites were thrilled with
The great event in every way.

It can not be forgotten
That play presented here
It will live on and on
In hearts and minds for many years.

We say to our talented mates

blazer trackmen hard to beat

TRACK — Row 1 — W. Hendrix, T. Taylor, S. Bourdolove, D. Talbot, F. Moore, H. Thomas, B. Stephens, H. Curry, R. Hood, J. Curry, W. Blake, M. Smith.
Row 2 — E. Nelson, R. Revels, B. Fussel, B. Solomon, N.

This year's track team went along in the usual style of Central's track teams. Although there were no Kwikers, Skeltons or Hatchers, we had our share of champions. Sprinter and high jumper Bill Stephens, middle-distance man Doug Talbot, hurdler and pole vaulter John Curry and miler Hal Thomas were joined by all-city star Ray Hood to lead the Blazers to a fine season. Many sophomores and juniors were on the team and helped to give depth to the squad.

Track seems to be gaining interest at Central and enthusiastic crowds turned out for all home meets.

This growing trend toward a highly competitive and very interesting sport promises to bring even better teams in the future than we've had in the past.

VARSITY BASEBALL — Row 1 — M. Lester, J. Lubin, L. Yo-vis, E. Traurig, H. Cooper, F. Imber, B. Repitor, R. Greene.
Row 2 — Asst. Coach Lambert, J. Sterns, C. McGee, H. Lambert, J. Rakotz, J. Branch, K. Lifton, J. Reilly, J. Woods, G. Watkins.

Row 3 — B. Sheer, N. Lawson, M. Davidson, M. Miller, N. Miller, J. Brown, R. Unrot, H. Cohen, H. Drapkin, Coach Kammerer.

Returning lettermen Harvey Cooper, Joe Sterns, George Watkins, Napoleon Miller and Jim Reily, along with experienced pitcher and infielder, Mel Lester, formed the basis for this year's baseball team. Along with them were scattered sophomores and juniors to give Central a well determined and highly spirited squad. In Harvey Cooper, the Blazers had one of the most aggressive catchers in the league. Jim Reily and Mel Lester supplied Central with two pitchers upon which it could depend and fleet footed and hard hitting George Watkins provided a perfect center fielder.

Long ball power and agility at first base was found in the person of Nap Miller, and in the versatility of Joe Sterns, Central possessed a very desirable player. Coach Kammerer again inspired and led the team to a very successful and interesting season.

girls' tennis brings season of cheers

GIRLS TENNIS — Row 1 — E. Brown, D. Applebaum, E. Margolis, J. Alzofon, R. Frank, J. Rosenzweig, B. Sorscher.

Row 2 — E. Braverman, A. Kaine, B. Hart, W. Ledger, R. Rosen, M. Lovejoy, F. Schreier.

Hit hard by heavy graduation losses, Central's girls tennis team underwent comprehensive rebuilding operations and emerged sporting six new faces and a determined will to win. The girls launched an ambitious four week schedule starting April 27 against Cooley and then went on to face Mackenzie, Cass, Mumford, Northwestern, Northern, Western and Redford. Elaine Brown, Judy Alzofon, Brenda Hart and Rosolyn Rosen handled the singles matches while Esther Margolis, Doris Applebaum, Jane Rosenzweig, Rose Frank,

Winnie Ledger, Friedelle Schreier, Barbara Sorcher, Arlene Kaine, Elaine Braverman and Marjorie Lovejoy held down the doubles positions.

Esther Margolis and Doris Applebaum were co-captains and inspired the girls throughout the season.

Along with a good team must go a good coach and along with Central's girls tennis team went Miss Burton, without whom the success of the team would not have been possible.

linksters spring into action

GOLF TEAM — Row 1: E. May, D. Smith.
Row 2 — B. Lichtig, Mr. Minton, G. Smoler, L. Schlain.

Returning lettermen Bill Lichtig, Eddie May, Gene Smoler and Lenny Schlain gave Central plenty of depth on the fairways. Burt Schwartz and Donny Smith joined this group to round out the Central golf team. The captain for this season was Bill Lichtig, who competed for the third year on the team. Matches were held against Cooley, Cody, Redford and Mackenzie, with Redford Municipal Golf Course acting as Central's home links.

tennis team shoots for city title

The graduation of Bob Brent left all-city star Chuck "Widge" Solomon to lead the Central boys' tennis team. With Captain Solomon at first singles, Neil Flattery at second singles, and Dave Abels and Stu Sachse alternating at third singles, only the doubles teams were not fully represented by lettermen. Central's tennis teams have always been of first class caliber and this year's team was no exception. Neil Flattery joined Chuck Solomon to give Central two candidates for all-city berths, in true Blazer style. Much credit must be given to Coach Don Fitch for the fine job he has done in turning out first rate teams at Central.

BOYS TENNIS—N. Flattery, T. Thompson, C. Levinson, D. Abels, C. Solomon.

Take the Telephone Company, for example. Anyone who works for Michigan Bell will tell you it's everything a girl could want in a job.

First, you don't need any experience. You learn your job on the job, and earn a good salary while learning. Raises are regular and frequent. Your income is steady—you can always count on it—and you get annual vacations with pay.

Another nice thing about telephone work is that you'll associate with people your own age, just out of school, too. You'll work in clean, bright, pleasant surroundings. Whether you prefer to start as a telephone operator, a teller or a clerk, you'll find opportunities for advancement.

We'd like to tell you more about these and other interesting telephone jobs. Visit us soon, won't you?

MICHIGAN BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY

"A FRIENDLY PLACE TO WORK"

... only the beginning

Ever stop to think what the world was like before electricity became everybody's servant? It's difficult to picture! Electric power serves so faithfully we just take it for granted.

Edison's incandescent lamp, heralding the birth of modern electric service, finally became more than a dream 75 years ago. To help turn this dream into reality, other men provided the finances Edison needed. Their joint achievement is an example of how financial risk-taking and individual ingenuity combine to the benefit of all people.

But our present way of living is only the beginning. Electricity promises for the future still greater marvels and better service.

It requires men and women with many skills to provide this service. If you would like to work with such people why not get in touch with Edison's Employment Office?
